

Code of Conduct

Student Attendees

1. "Delegate" shall mean any KS TSA member (voting or non-voting) attending the state conference.
2. There shall be no defacing of public property. Any damages to the property or furnishing in the hotel rooms or building facilities must be paid by the individual(s) or chapter(s) responsible. Delegates must follow facility guidelines for adhering signs, notices, posters, etc. to walls, doors, or any facility surface.
3. Delegates shall keep their advisors informed of their activities and/or whereabouts at all times.
4. Delegates should be prompt and prepared for all activities.
5. Delegates should be financially prepared for all possibilities.
6. No alcoholic beverages, narcotics, firearms or weapons, in any form, shall be possessed by delegates, alumni or other conference attendees at any time, under any circumstances.
7. Smoking or gambling especially in public will not be permitted, since a delegate in TSA attire is officially representing a chapter and/or state association of TSA.
8. No delegates shall leave the conference site unless permission has been received from Chapter Advisors.
9. Delegates are required to attend all general sessions and activities assigned, including workshops, competitive events, committee meetings, etc., for which they are registered unless engaged in specific assignments taking place at the same time.
10. Identification badges must be worn and visible on the lanyard or pinned to the right upper chest at all times by all persons in conference attendance.
11. Chapter advisors will be responsible for their delegates' conduct.
12. Delegates violating or ignoring any of the conduct rules will subject their entire delegation to being unseated and their candidates or competitive events participants being disqualified. Individual delegates may be sent home immediately at his or her own expense. Curfews will be enforced.
13. Casual wear will be acceptable only during specific social functions, as designated.
14. The KS TSA Board of Directors reserves the right to dismiss any person from the conference for inappropriate actions.

Advisors

1. Advisors shall conduct periodic meetings with their student delegates and voting delegates for the purpose of reviewing the many conference activities of which they may take advantage, obtaining progress reports, emphasizing time schedules, sharing successes, and overall, to ensure that the students are taking full advantage of the conference and its activities. If an advisor is not available, a sponsor or parent shall help assume these duties.
2. Advisors shall keep an agenda of their own schedule and give it to their students so that the advisor may be reached during the conference at any time.
3. Each advisor shall be responsible for ensuring that student participants adhere to all conduct practices and procedures as state above.
4. The rules, as stated in this Code of Conduct are called to your attention for review and apply to advisors as well as students.
